

The Keys to KPIs

How to use Key Performance Indicators to get better control of your business

Presented by:

Andy Rockwood of Rock Solid Business Development

Friday, February 26, 2010 from 7:30 - 8:30 am
Grandma V's Restaurant,
Routes 176 and 45 in Mundelein, Illinois

- Why do you need these KPI things? (I get all the information I need from my financial statements)
- How do I know which KPIs are right for my business?
- How can I make KPIs predictive so I can spot bumps in the road before I hit them?

Join us for this business workshop on how KPIs can help you make better critical management decisions while boosting a your company's bottom line performance.
